So here is something that i learned from this book... in both languages, the name is the same. Stop laughing... it seems logical now, but up until that point that i found the book online to order for my wife's classroom... I had no clue. And that is truth in saying that a book like this will teach any age. It is a bit of a stretch compared to what my wife is doing using the series from Keepsake Stories in her High school classes, but she is and the response is also positive so far. Great reads in any language

My son is 3 years old and I got this for him for Christmas. He loves it! He has asked to read it every night for the past week. We read it in Spanish, and if he picks it on a night that Daddy does bedtime, he can read the exact same book but in English! It is a very good translation, in my opinion. The story does leave things out, but it is necessary since this is a young children's book and too many details would make the book too long. Plus, he doesn't know any better and doesn't miss a beat.

I thought the books are in Spanish and English, but is only in English, as I do for my money back?

Listing says this Kindle edition is English-Spanish, but after purchasing I discover it is English only. Go to "manage kindle" and return it.

My Godson is Canarian, from Tenerife. This book is wonderful, as i can read to him in both English and Spanish. Therefore helping him with his English, and me with my Spanish. Thank you so much from both of us. Very happy bedtime readings. Carol Chapman 63yrs and Hugo Martin Chincho 3yrs and 6 months. Please could you send items direct to Tenerife Sur, Espana. As i had to have sent to England then on to Tenerife. Thank you.

I purchased the physical book. It is a simple, decent sized paperback, with Spanish and English text. Fun little summary of a favorite childhood story. Pictures aren't too bad either.
