Customer Reviews

Many of the books in this series are better than this one. The selection of items and pictures is odd, and the mirror on the last page distorts baby's face like something out of a funhouse. Skip this one in the series.

This series is great! This was the only thing to get my highly Kinetic child to sit still and read. The things to feel here are things that are in their own environment, and there is a wonderful 3-D component to it too. Personally I think these are heads and shoulders above the "pat the bunny" books, and so does my child.

I'm sorry but I didn't realize I was buying a used book. This book was almost falling apart, and it's not good to give a well-used touch and feel baby book to another baby. (GERMS!) It took forever to get this book, so it missed the baby shower it was intended for. Luckily I went to a bookstore and bought another choice. "HOME" is my baby granddaughter's favorite, but buy it NEW if you can. Even when she was a teeny baby this book made her smile.... still does and she is 9 months old. But this used book was extremely disappointing and I ended up throwing it in the trash. :(

I BOUGHT THIS BOOK FOR MY BABY COUSIN. SHE READ THIS FOR THE FIRST TIME AT AGE 2. SHE ENJOYED TOUCHING THE PICTURES AND LISTENING TO ME READ TO HER. I BELIEVE THAT THIS BOOK HELPED HER WITH HER READING.

The photos and fur on all of the animals are really cute. The book is very sturdy and made for little hands. I thought my little girl would be more impressed with this book but she still prefers her Maisy and Caillou board books much better.

Good book with nice patterns to feel. I wish there were more areas that were touch and feel though. But is a good book and durable for about a 18 month old (although I read with my 3 year old too who was intrigued by all the different feels) and would recommend.

Compared to other books in the series, this book is my daughter's least favorite. The items in the house are boring, at least for an infant (OK, even for an adult). Would you rather see a baby rabbit or a hanging towel? And who still hangs their clothes out to dry? Many of the textures are almost the same (the fur of the bear and the fur of the cat, the towel and the curtain). I think the cat picture is actually repeated in another book. Check out Touch and Feel Bathtime, Farm, and Pets instead.

Okay, we have almost all of the "Touch and Feel" books and this is one of the favorites!! All 3 of my babies LOVE the teddy bear and love the lift the 'soft cotton curtain', etc. Loads of fun! Only downfall is these books just are long enough!!
